

Bellville High School
English IV AP

Mrs. Helmcamp
ahelmcamp@bellvillebrahmas.org

The Advanced Placement English classes provide more challenging work with the intent of helping students prepare to receive college credit at the end of the course through the AP exam. The work equips students with the skills of organization, time management, research, independent study, close reading, writing, and analysis of literary works.

Summer Reading Assignment

Students entering AP English classes must complete the following summer reading before the first day of school. Please be prepared for an assessment during the first week of school.

English IV AP Summer Reading Assignment Frankenstein (1831 unabridged version) by Mary Shelley
--

(Electronic versions (Kindle, Nook, etc.) of the books are allowed, but students may not use their phones for the electronic version.)

On the first day of school, students need to bring their copy of the novel to class.
